Here is a dresser you will cherish for years. It's the triple dresser with inherent SAGA beauty and nine drawer convenience: there's three on each side and three more behind the center doors. The carved motif and silk screened pencil lines serve to emphasize the loveliness of the overall design. That carved motif is interestingly echoed on your choice of horizontal or vertical mirrors. This double dresser means a side for "him" and a side for "her" . . . three roomy drawers each. And, as in the triple dresser, the top right hand drawer has a pin tray. SAGA's ornamental theme of deep carvings and simulated pencil inlays are used to full advantage here to give you a distinctly beautiful bedroom piece. As bedroom furniture should be, this dresser has refined lines, soft and gently molded. No bulkiness, only a graceful and light scale that makes it appropriate in small or large rooms. Drawer interiors of oak or sycamore are made smooth so even the most delicate fabrics can't snag. And, center drawer guides glide smoothly on nylon for easy opening in all kinds of weather.

There are two variations of the 4/6 size — with or without the foot panel. And, the kingsize panel for king and queen size comfort and beauty. This kingsize features swingaway frames to make bed making a breeze instead of an everyday chore. No matter what size you select, all of them carry the mark of exquisite quality in bedroom furnishings.

Add a bedspread of bright flowers for a light-hearted air or a solid color spread of rich texture to form a luxurious background for serenity.

An impressive accent piece for modern homes is the desk. And, this kneehole desk with its distinctive SAGA styling and curved face will surely find its practical way into yours. Five drawers to hold everything from stationery to last year's cancelled checks, plus a sixth that's doubly deep make this desk as functional as it is beautiful. In your living room, family room, den, or in any room, this desk will add a new measure of charm to its surroundings.

It's long, low and just right to be the center of attraction wherever you place it. Sculptured legs and SAGA's rich walnut finish are the characteristics of this cocktail table you'll love. Shelf space for magazines leaves the top free to accessorize to your own taste. Center drawer is deep to hold a multitude of things.
